

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction: Unravelling media theory	1
Section 1 Developing the field: a history of media theory	21
1 Mass society and modernity: early media theory	23
2 Schools of thought: developing approaches to media theory	44
Section 2 The production process	71
3 The censorship of money: theories of media ownership and control	73
4 Inside the image factory: theories of media organisation and media work	96
Section 3 Media content	121
5 Telling it as it is? Questions of media representation	123
6 Ways of making you think: theories of ideology and meaning	145
Section 4 Theories of media effects and audiences	165
7 Effects, what effects? Power and influence of the media	168
8 The audience strikes back: new audience and reception theory	190
Section 5 Media change and media theory	211
9 Living in the global village: new media theory	213
Bibliography	234
Index	260